

Ancient Rome Detective

Surviving Rome for a day was just the beginning. Now, you have become a "Roman detective" and must figure out the ancient Rome items with the clues you are given.

Good Luck, detective.

Instructions:

- On each slide, you will be given clues. With those clues, you must figure out what the Ancient Rome item/topic it is.
- You will use Mr. Donn's Website . ALL answers are on that site. You just need to search.
- This will be challenging. But that's the point. When you are challenged, you grow stronger.
- Record your answers in your work packet.
-

Best of Luck, Detective.

Suspect #1

1. "Green" column
2. these "letters" were ordered to be chiseled on buildings, armor, coins, and benches.
3. It stands for "The Senate and the People of Rome"

What is it?

Suspect #2

1. This is a man.
2. He was a free man who joined the army. However, he ran away and when captured, forced into slavery.
3. He was sent to gladiator school
4. One day, he escaped and with other slaves, fought in many bloody battles with the Roman Army.

Who is this?

Suspect #3

1. This is a story around 30 BCE.
2. The story takes place between the fall of Troy and the time when Romulus and Remus founded Rome.
3. It tells of what happened to the survivors from Troy of the Trojan War.
4. Stories are usual italicized....

What is it?

Suspect #4

1. This was built in about 6 BCE.
2. It was built out of wood.
3. This isn't your usual circus.
4. It was built as a race track for people to race chariots.
5. It could seat over 250,000 people!

What is it?

Suspect #5

1. This is a special day associated with red and pink.
2. It was a Roman festival called Lupercalia to honor love.
3. The Roman god, Cupid played a large role in this holiday.

What is the holiday?

Suspect #6.

1. Similar to something Hammurabi created in Mesopotamia
2. After 50 years, the Republic wrote down laws so people knew what to do.
3. The laws were obeyed by all citizens and organized into 12 sections.

What is it?

Suspect #7.

1. Like to give speeches? then this place might be the place for you!
2. A good place to shop.
3. Want to do a little business with the citizens of Rome? You might want to go here.

What is it?

Suspect #8.

1. This was a match-up between Rome and their arch-rival Carthage.
2. Rome was not happy about how big Carthage was getting...
3. Elephants were used to attack.
4. In one battle, Hannibal dumped snakes on the deck of the enemy ship.

What is this?

Suspect #9.

1. Two groups of people...
2. One group is the wealthy, the other group is the common folk.
3. Many, many things were different between these two "groups."

What are they?

Suspect #10.

1. This "person" was a great general and leader of Rome.
2. He established many new, important laws.
3. He improved the Army.
4. All of Rome loved him, except the Senate b/c they feared he was getting too powerful. So, they killed him.

Who is this?